

Inventor Asks $102,050,000In Suit Against U. S. Officials

WASHINGTON, Oct. 30.—Suit to recover $102,050,000 damages for alleged conspiracy was filed to-day in the District Supreme Court by E. L. Rice, an airplane inventor of the Pacific Coast, against Secretary of War Baker, Postmaster General Burleson, the Democratic members of the House Military Committee, other Democratic members of the House of Representatives, and various army officers. Rice charges that orders to purchase airplanes containing his invention were pigeon-holed by certain of the officers named and he was deprived of large profits.
